Jim Martin, DVM, Dianne Rey, DVM

JIM MARTIN, DVM: B.S. in Animal Science And Chemistry, Berry College; Doctor Of Veterinary Medicine, University Of Florida. Dr. Martin's interests are in general medicine, emergency medicine, dentistry and pain management. DIANNE REY, DVM: B.S. in Animal Science, Cornell University; Doctor Of Veterinary Medicine, Ross University School Of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Rey has a passion for surgery and enjoys general and emergency medicine. ABOUT US: Established as a companion small animal hospital in 1973, LHVH is located in the beautiful Loch Haven arts district. We continue to be committed to providing high quality veterinary care to our feline and canine friends by our compassionate health care team. Examples of our services include preventative care for all life stages, general medicine and surgery, general dentistry and geriatric care. Our doctors and team utilize state-of-the-art equipment such as digital X-rays, digital dental X-rays, a modern full service in-house laboratory and the needed modern instruments to provide the best care and treatment for our patients. PERSONAL PETS: Piccito the terrier, pictured above, rules Dr. Martin's household, along with two cats. Dr. Rey is owned by Birk, the chihuahua terrier pictured with her above. WHY CHOOSE US: Our hospital team enjoys building bonds with our clients and investing the time to ensure every visit is personalized and exceeds expectations. We have a friendly, knowledgeable, experienced team of pet lovers that want the best for your family member. Our best advice to you as a pet parent is to "get involved" and be a part of those decisions being made by your veterinarian for the health care of your beloved family member.
